

Explore ways to finance your education

Disclaimer

Please note that this is not financial advice, and we do not directly benefit from you utilizing these options.

Our goal is to give you options that may help you finance your tuition. It is up to you to thoroughly review these options and make sure they are suitable for you.

Most of these options will require an approval process that is at the sole discretion of the provider.

Explore different ways to finance your tuition

Low interest student line of credit with flexible payment options.

Affordable loans offered by a national charity for newcomers in Canada.

RESP, RRSP, Military Benefits and Concordia alumni discounts.

Student line of credit with Caisse Desjardins

Caisse Desjardins des Technology offers a low-interest student line of credit to cover your entire tuition fee of $12,495, with flexible payment plans.

Who can get this loan?

This loan is available for permanent residents or Canadian citizens based in Quebec.

How can I learn more?

You can click here to book a call with a Desjardins representative.

Loan for newcomers with Windmill

Windmill is a non-profit organization that offers affordable loans to newcomers in Canada. The loan covers your entire tuition fee of $12,495.

Find out if you are eligible

You can click here to find out if you are eligible and get pre-approved.

Other options to finance your tuition

RESP & RRSP

You can withdraw from your RESP or your RRSP through the Lifelong Learning Plan (LLP).

Military benefits

If you've served in the military, learn more about how you might be entitled to get some or all of your tuition fee reimbursed.

Concordia alumni $500 discount

If you have completed any courses at Concordia, a $500 discount will automatically be applied to your tuition.

Contact us if you still have questions.

hello@concordiabootcamps.ca